

Hello Mary,

I trust you're well.

It gives me great pleasure to let you know, that as part of AI's 2019 Leading Adviser Awards, yourself and Nyhan Tax Advisers have been recognised as our:

Leading Complex Business Taxation Specialist of the Year, Ireland

No matter how successful a business or individual may be, it goes without saying that away from its own assemblage of talent and expertise, there will always be a network of trusted lawyers, advisers and consultants behind the scenes helping to inform, guide and shape the way in which it operates.

Since 2014, AI have looked to highlight some of the most renowned and innovative professionals from around the world. Those recognised have been handpicked, based on the comprehensive analysis of our in-house team, who have left no stone unturned to ensure that these awards are allocated only to the individuals and firms that truly deserve them.
